ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Corrupt the Youth’s Summer Philosophy Program is a two-week summer residential program for talented high school students interested in philosophy. Applications for Corrupt the Youth Summer 2019 are now available at CorruptTheYouth.org.

Corrupt the Youth will fully cover both accommodation and food during the course of the program. You will stay in the campus dorms and room with another Corrupt the Youth fellow. Please note preference will be given to applicants living in or near the Austin-area, students from Title 1 schools or low-income background, and ethnic/gender minorities.

Student participants are expected to live on campus, attend all enrolled courses and complete all assignments, as well as participate in social events and activities in the evenings and on weekends.

BE CHALLENGED.
BE CHANGED.
BE CORRUPTED.
Corrupt the Youth plans to offer courses in the following areas:

- Race and Gender
- Ethics
- Political Philosophy
- Critical Reasoning and Argumentation

Students will be required to take a course either in critical reasons or in political philosophy (but can take both if they choose).

Additionally, students will participate in daily one-hour writing courses. On Wednesday afternoons, students will participate in ‘round tables’, in which they work to apply the skills they have learned to a philosophical question or a contemporary moral problem.

The application is available online at CorruptTheYouth.org. As part of your application, you will need to submit:

- Corrupt the Youth Student Application (available online)
- High School transcript
- ACTor SAT scores (if available)
- Short Essays (2 essays of 300-500 words - topics are available online)
